NSLP Adds Business Development Director

Former Kansas FAA president will cover central states

(October 10, 2005) – NSLP is pleased to announce that Myra Pfannenstiel has joined the organization as Regional Director of Business Development for Kansas and western Missouri.

Pfannenstiel has over 11 years of financial aid experience, most recently at Friends University in Kansas, where she was Director of Financial Aid. She is very familiar with school-based loan processing software and financial aid mainframe systems.

“Myra is well-versed in using technology in the financial aid office,” says Rod Langel, Vice President of Business Development. “She’ll be a great resource for our schools and lenders.”

Pfannenstiel is an active member of the Kansas Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (KASFAA), where she previously held many leadership positions including president, president-elect, secretary, and chair of the conference planning committee. She has also been a presenter at the NASFAA, RMASFAA and KASFAA conferences.

Her office will be located in Wichita, Kansas. For more information about NSLP’s Business Development team visit the “Contact Us” section at <http://www.nslp.org>.

Headquartered in Lincoln, Nebraska, the National Student Loan Program is a private, nonprofit corporation in its second decade as a student loan guaranty agency. NSLP works with lenders and post-secondary schools across the nation to help students gain access to low-cost student loans. With annual loan guarantees of $3.1 billion, NSLP is one of the nation’s major guaranty agencies and continues to serve as the designated guaranty agency for Nebraska.
