NSLP Expands Business Development Team

(August 22, 2001) NSLP is pleased to announce the addition of Juan Perez as Regional Director of Business Development. Perez will coordinate NSLP's interactions with schools and lenders in the southeastern region of the country and in Puerto Rico, as well as continue to maintain NSLP's relationships in the RMASFAA region.

Perez has over 12 years of student loan experience. Before joining Business Development, he supervised NSLP's Customer Service and Loan Origination units and then supervised the Default Prevention and Collection unit.

"We are extremely pleased to have Juan as part of our team," said NSLP Vice President Rod Langel. "Juan understands the student loan needs of schools, lenders and borrowers, and he'll help us continue NSLP's reputation for providing the excellent service that our customers depend on."

Other Regional Directors of Business Development include Amanda Koelling, Mark Krings, Julie Esau, and Amy Jurgens. For more information about NSLP's Business Development Team, see the "NSLP Contacts" section of NSLP's website at www.nslp.org/busdev.htm.

Headquartered in Lincoln, Nebraska, the National Student Loan Program is a private, nonprofit corporation in its second decade as a student loan guaranty agency. NSLP works with lenders and post-secondary schools across the nation to help students gain access to low-cost student loans. With annual loan guarantees of over $810 million, NSLP is ranked 7th among 36 guaranty agencies in the country, and continues to serve as the designated guaranty agency for Nebraska.
