Cash for Class Awards at MASFAA and RMASFAA

(October 1, 2001) -- Schools can register to win Cash for Class for their students during the upcoming MASFAA conference October 7-10 in Chicago, Illinois; and the RMASFAA conference October 14-27 in Wichita, Kansas. NSLP's Cash for Class is a new scholarship program that provides money to schools in each of the six financial aid regions. Cash for Class provides students with funds to help pay for college expenses and to support the efforts of financial aid colleagues.

Schools can register for Cash for Class at NSLP's booth at the MASFAA, RMASFAA, SWASFAA, SASFAA, EASFAA and WASFAA conferences held October 2001 through April 2002. Schools receive Cash for Class registration forms prior to each regional conference.

The school decides how to award the funds to their students to use for educational expenses. Any postsecondary school in the United States, or one of its territories, that participates in Title IV programs is eligible to register for Cash for Class. Schools do not need to belong to any of the six regional financial aid associations to be eligible. NSLP selects the winning school and awards the funds shortly after each regional conference.

For more information about Cash for Class, contact NSLP Business Development at 800-735-8778, ext. 6618. For more information about the MASFAA or RMASFAA conferences, visit www.masfaa.org or www.rmasfaa.org.

Headquartered in Lincoln, Nebraska, the National Student Loan Program is a private, nonprofit corporation in its second decade as a student loan guaranty agency. NSLP works with lenders and postsecondary schools across the nation to help students gain access to low-cost student loans.
