NSLP Awards Cash for Class™ to EASFAA Schools

Program helps students pay for college expenses

(July 5, 2005) – NSLP awarded Cash for Class scholarship funds to Dartmouth College and SUNY Westchester Community College at the EASFAA conference.

NSLP doubled the amount it awards through Cash for Class, which means two schools from each financial aid region will receive $1,000 to help their students pay college expenses. The schools decide how to award the funds to their students.

"NSLP's Cash for Class will benefit students who have overcome challenges and stayed in school," said Sabrina Lerman, Financial Aid Counselor at SUNY Westchester Community College. "Cash for Class provides opportunities for educational success!"

"Cash for Class will help our students persist in times of financial hardship," said Nancy Welch, Associate Director of Financial Aid at Dartmouth College. "Students need a helping hand, and we're glad NSLP is reaching out to them."

In addition to Cash for Class, NSLP helps students pay for college through a $5,000 donation to EducationQuest Foundation's Reaching Your Potential scholarship program. This program provides renewable, need-based scholarships to Nebraskans who overcome obstacles to attend college.
