NSLP Adds Kibarian to Business Development Team

Expert in financial aid will cover southwest region.

(January 4, 2005) – NSLP is pleased to announce the addition of Cheryl Kibarian as Regional Director of Business Development. Kibarian will work with schools and lenders in Arizona and Nevada.

Kibarian has over 11 years of financial aid experience from Thunderbird's Garvin School of International Management, where she was Assistant Director of Financial Aid. During her tenure she counseled graduate students about financial aid and personal budget planning and managed the day-to-day operations of the financial aid office.

"Cheryl's financial aid expertise and her knowledge of what schools and students need is a great addition to our customer-oriented team," says Rod Langel, Vice President of Business Development. "Her experience with student loans, ELM Resources and our services is a great combination -- she can help our schools streamline their offices."

Kibarian is also a long-time member of the Western Association of Financial Aid Administrators and the Arizona Association of Financial Aid Administrators, where she served on several committees and the board of directors.

NSLP's other Regional Directors of Business Development include Mark Krings, Juan Perez, Todd Woodlee, April Qualls, Brenda Paganelli, and Robyn LeGrand. For more information about NSLP's Business Development Team, visit <http://www.nslp.org/busdev.htm>.

Headquartered in Lincoln, Nebraska, the National Student Loan Program is a private, nonprofit corporation in its second decade as a student loan guaranty agency. NSLP works with lenders and post-secondary schools across the nation to help students gain access to low-cost student loans. With annual loan guarantees of over $2.3 billion, NSLP is one of the nation's major guaranty agencies and continues to serve as the designated guaranty agency for Nebraska.
