LeGrand Joins NSLP Business Development Team

(May 11, 2004) – NSLP is pleased to announce that Robyn LeGrand has joined its Business Development team as a Regional Director. LeGrand will coordinate NSLP’s interactions with schools and lenders in Missouri, Indiana, Oklahoma, and Texas.

LeGrand brings to her position over 15 years of student loan-related experience in which she built and maintained relationships with schools. For the past eight years, she held positions with lenders in Missouri where she assessed school needs; helped with entrance and exit counseling; and provided counselors, parents, and students with information about the financial aid process. She also served as a corporate trainer for a student loan servicer where she developed and presented training in response to changes in federal regulations.

In addition, LeGrand has extensive committee involvement with several financial aid and student loan organizations including MASFAP, SLGFA, IASFAA, NCHELP, and SLSA. She also served on a student loan taskforce and was active in the negotiated rulemaking process.

“Robyn’s past experience gives her thorough knowledge and understanding of school and lender needs, and that will benefit our clients in her marketing territory,” said NSLP Vice President Rod Langel. “She is, and will be, an excellent resource for them.”

NSLP’s other Regional Directors of Business Development are Mark Krings, Juan Perez, Todd Woodlee, Brenda Paganelli, and Charla Rasmussen. For more information about NSLP’s Business Development team, see the NSLP Contacts section at www.nslp.org/busdev.htm.
