Paganelli Joins NSLP's Business Development Team

(January 6, 2004) – NSLP is pleased to announce that Brenda Paganelli has joined NSLP as Regional Director of Business Development. Paganelli will coordinate NSLP's interactions with schools and lenders in Arkansas and Mississippi.

Paganelli knows the student loan industry first-hand. Before joining NSLP, she was Director of Financial Aid at Blue Mountain College in Mississippi where she streamlined and automated the financial aid process. Students and parents benefited from her extensive experience in loan counseling and debt management. A leader in the industry, Paganelli has presented and been involved in various regional mid-level training and state financial aid workshops.

In addition, she has served in leadership roles in regional and state financial aid organizations including SASFAA board member, SASFAA/SWASFAA curriculum coordinator, and president of the Mississippi Financial Aid Association.

"Brenda has great energy and compassion for helping people," said NSLP Vice President Rod Langel. "She can help schools because she's walked in their shoes, and she understands the importance of positive, productive lender and guarantor partnerships."

NSLP's other Regional Directors of Business Development include Mark Krings, Juan Perez, Todd Woodlee, and Charla Rasmussen. For more information about NSLP's Business Development Team, see the NSLP Contacts section of NSLP's website at <http://www.nslp.org/busdev.htm>.

Headquartered in Lincoln, Nebraska, the National Student Loan Program is a private, nonprofit corporation in its second decade as a student loan guaranty agency. NSLP works with lenders and post-secondary schools across the nation to help students gain access to low-cost student loans. With annual loan guarantees of over $1.5 billion, NSLP is one of the nation's major guaranty agencies and continues to serve as the designated guaranty agency for Nebraska.
